(ii) Whether or not parching or roasting coffee comes within the purview of 'offensive trade' as defined in the existing bye-laws (which definition however is only descriptive) appears to be a matter to be decided by administrative experts. The bye-laws have been framed under S 51 (iii) and S 181 of the City Municipalities Act, 1933, though however S 51(iii)(6) provides for bye-laws relating to parching of grain or bengal gram on a large scale. If however parching or roasting could be deemed to come within the purview of S 181 (2) then it could be construed to be 'offensive' and a 'nuisance' if the formalities of publication etc under S 51 of the Act are observed, then it appears, the

Submitted to the President

The amendment now proposed is on the lines of the notification No M5 C 47-42-43 dated 7-8-1942 wherein "Parching of Bengal gram for commercial purposes" has been included under Offensive Trades in Mysore City under section 181 As there are many places and shops where ಕಡಲೆ ಬೇಳೆ etc , are prepared and sold, it is intended to have control over these places by bringing them under licensing trades The sanitary staff can then inspect the places and enforce sanitary rules from the Public health point As the license fee is only Rs 5/- per annum in respect of the above business, the merchants dealing in the business cannot complain
